"Sing aloud with gladness!"

Jeremiah 31:7

Book of Worship | June 14, 2020

Welcome to Redeemer Church

Redeemer Church is an independent Reformed congregation. We are Baptistic in practice, meaning that we adhere to the Baptist Confession of Faith of 1689, a doctrinal statement strongly grounded in the Word of God.

If you are our guest today and would like to make yourself known to us, you can use the Guest Card in the seat pocket in front of you. After completing it, simply drop it in the drop box at the entrance to the auditorium; and if you are our guest today, please feel no obligation to give. As you leave, please take one of our Guest Packets located at the entrance to the auditorium.

“Come, let us worship and bow down! Let us kneel before the Lord, our maker!”

A Prayer for The Lord’s Day

O LORD OUR GOD, we come before Thee to humble ourselves in Thy holy presence. We bless Thy name, O Lord, for the glory and the wonder and the marvel of Thy ways. Forgive us, O Lord, for our unbelief. Forgive us for our fears and forebodings of evil. Open our eyes that we may see the truth. Open our understandings to receive it. Open our hearts that they may rejoice in it. O God, receive our unworthy praise and our unworthy adoration. May thy name be glorified in our midst, and in the midst of all Thy people at this present hour. Grant us to see and ever to realize that He that is in us and with us is greater than he that is in and with the world. Amen.

REFLECTION

“The way to godly living is surprisingly simple: We are to walk with God in His appointed way (Micah 6:8), diligently using the means of grace and the spiritual disciplines, and waiting upon the Holy Spirit for blessing. Note that godly living involves both discipline and grace. This emphasis upon duty and grace is fundamental to Reformed, experiential thinking on godly living.”

— Joel Beeke

COLLECT

Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Worship Service

the name of the Lord is to be praised.*

Please enter quietly and refrain from loud conversations.

THE PSALM | PSALM 111

SING ALOUD!

A MIGHTY FORTRESS IS OUR GOD

Words & Music: Martin Luther

CCLI License # 11152837

A mighty fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing;
Our helper He, amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing:
For still our ancient foe doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and pow'r are great, and, armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

Did we in our own strength confide, our striving would be losing,
Were not the right Man on our side, the Man of God's own choosing:
Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He;
Lord Sabaoth, His Name, from age to age the same,
And He must win the battle.

And though this world, with devils filled, should threaten to undo us,
We will not fear, for God hath willed His truth to triumph through us;
The Prince of Darkness grim, we tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure, for lo, his doom is sure,
One little word shall fell him.

That word above all earthly pow'rs, no thanks to them, abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours through Him Who with us sideth;
Let goods and kindred go, this mortal life also;
The body they may kill: God's truth abideth still,
His kingdom is forever.

KING OF KINGS, MAJESTY

Words & Music: Jarrod Cooper
CCLI License # 11152837

King of kings, majesty
God of heaven living in me
Gentle Saviour, closest friend
Strong deliv'rer, beginning and end
All within me falls at Your throne

*Your majesty I can but bow
I lay my all before You now
In royal robes I don't deserve
I live to serve Your majesty*

Earth and heav'n worship You
Love eternal, faithful and true
Who bought the nations, ransomed souls
Brought this sinner near to Your throne
All within me cries out in praise

READING OF THE LAW

PASTOR: Which is the ninth commandment?

PEOPLE: The ninth commandment is, Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

PASTOR: What is required in the ninth commandment?

PEOPLE: The ninth commandment requireth the maintaining and promoting of truth between man and man, and of our own and our neighbor's good name, especially in witness-bearing.

PASTOR: What is forbidden in the ninth commandment?

PEOPLE: The ninth commandment forbiddeth whatsoever is prejudicial to truth, or injurious to our own or our neighbor's good name.

CONFESSON OF SIN | PSALM 41:4

UNISON: O LORD, be gracious to me; heal me, for I have sinned against you!

ASSURANCE OF PARDON | 1 PETER 3:18

PASTOR: For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit.

HIS ROBES FOR MINE

Words: Chris Anderson | Music: Greg Habegger
CCLI License # 11152837

His robes for mine: O wonderful exchange!
Clothed in my sin, Christ suffered 'neath God's rage.
Draped in His righteousness, I'm justified.
In Christ I live, for in my place He died.

*I cling to Christ, and marvel at the cost:
Jesus forsaken, God estranged from God.
Bought by such love, my life is not my own.
My praise—my all—shall be for Christ alone.*

His robes for mine: what cause have I for dread?
God's daunting Law Christ mastered in my stead.
Faultless I stand with righteous works not mine,
Saved by my Lord's vicarious death and life.

His robes for mine: God's justice is appeased.
Jesus is crushed, and thus the Father's pleased.
Christ drank God's wrath on sin, then cried, "Tis done!"
Sin's wage is paid; propitiation won.

His robes for mine: such anguish none can know.
Christ, God's beloved, condemned as though His foe.
He, as though I, accursed and left alone;
I, as though He, embraced and welcomed home!

Words & Music: Keith Getty, Stuart Townend
CCLI License # 11152837

Holy Spirit, come abide within
May Your joy be seen in all I do
Love enough to cover ev'ry sin
In each thought and deed and attitude
Kindness to the greatest and the least
Gentleness that sows the path of peace
Turn my striving into works of grace
Breath of God, show Christ in all I do

PERSONAL & FAMILY WORSHIP

THE GRACE OF OUR SYMPATHIZING LORD | ANNE DUTTON

It is our unspeakable privilege—that in all our afflictions our dear Lord Jesus is afflicted. Our best Friend, our sympathizing Friend at God's right hand—has an inexpressible fellow-feeling with us in all our miseries of soul and body. When His members on earth are sick, the Head in heaven accounts the sickness His own—"I was sick." What wondrous grace is this! It is a bright display—of the Savior's goodness—of His tender mercy—of His love which passes knowledge. We have in the love of Christ a sweet soft bosom to rest our weary heads—an open ear to all our requests—a flowing heart to relieve us in straits—and an almighty hand to supply all our needs. No indulgent father—no compassionate mother—nor countless numbers of them, were all their affections united in one person, has or could have a thousandth part of that sympathy with a beloved child, when sick—which Jesus has with us, His sick children. Yes, with us—though rebellious children. For we are unto Him dear, ineffably dear children—from an infinity of tender mercy—from an all-endearing love—that has in it neither bottom, bound, nor end!

And what a joy in grief may it be to us, that all our afflictions—for kind and degree—are measured out to us and continued upon us, by our infinite Lover's hand! Wise is our compassionate Father's love—and His medicine, to promote our health, when He sees it best for us Himself will give unto us. Not an ingredient in our bitterest potion, but is put into it by wise love—to make it just fit to work for our salvation.

Our Father, as our physician, not only prepares and gives our medicine—but His own hand also has the whole direction of its operation, to answer effectually all His wise and gracious ends designed thereby.

The grace of your sympathizing Lord is boundless! You can never come too often to His bosom, which is always open—yes, the oftener you there flee the more welcome shall you be! Jesus loves you as His own, and will embrace you in love unknown! His sympathy with you in sorrow shall give you joy—His supports under pressures make heaviest burdens light—His management of your crosses bring greatest advantages—and His gracious designs gloriously ends in your salvation—by a light and momentary affliction, unto a weight of glory of eternal duration.

DAR: PIONEERS

Thank you for praying for good opportunities to share Christ during the month of Ramadan. I had many more opportunities than in other years and most of them were on many different aspects of what the Bible teaches and not just fasting.

Two of the people I continue to have good conversations with are Aaron, the neighborhood chief (who I've mentioned before), and Michael, the regional school inspector. Aaron and I have worked through many of the main stories of the Old Testament and are coming up on the life of David. He's full of questions and good observations. Michael and I have also been working through the Old Testament, though at this point he seems to be motivated mostly by a desire just to have more knowledge.

Would you pray with us that hearing and discussing God's word would soften the hearts of these men toward the truths of the gospel?
